

Cardiology Confidence

RACGP Activity Number - 250717

- Syncope and the role of LOOP recorders.
- Key information updates from 10 recent cardiology trials supporting the primary care of cardiac patients.
- Which test is best? An informative discussion on selecting appropriate cardiac tests to meet symptomatic presentation in line with Medicare and best practice guidelines.

Details

Location Silverwater Resort - San Remo
17 Potters Hill Rd, San Remo VIC 3925

Date Thursday 17th July, 2025

Program

- 6:30pm Registration and Dinner
- 7:00pm Presentations and Discussion
Syncope and the role of LOOP recorders
Dr Deepu Balakrishnan - Consultant & Interventional Cardiologist
- 7:45pm Information updates from 10 recent cardiology trials supporting the primary care of cardiac patients
Dr Ross McMahon- Consultant Cardiologist
- 8:30pm Which test is best? An informative discussion on selecting appropriate cardiac tests for presenting symptoms
Dr Deepu Balakrishnan - Consultant & Interventional Cardiologist
- 9:00pm Conclusion

Learning Outcomes

1. Outline cardiac causes of syncope
2. Summarise the role LOOP records play in the diagnoses and management of syncope
3. Summarise and share cardiology trial updates with GP colleagues
4. Identify the most relevant cardiac investigations for referral to assess presenting symptoms of your patient

Registration

stacey@nepeanspecialistgroup.com.au

0438 140 996

Scan Here to Register

Speakers

Dr Deepu Balakrishnan
MBBS, FRACP, GDipHSM
Consultant & Interventional Cardiologist

Dr Ross McMahon
MB BAO BCh MRCP FRACP
Consultant Cardiologist